2. COMMUNICATION:

The applicant's attention is drawn to the fact that according to the national law of the United States of America, only the inventor is entitled to file a national application (Article 27(3)). The United States of America is designated in the international application, however,

(i) the named inventor(s) is (are) not also indicated as applicant(s) for the purposes of the designation of the United States of America, and is (are) not indicated as being deceased; or

(ii) no inventor is indicated.

If no inventor is indicated as applicant for the purposes of the designation of the United States of America, the application may be rejected by the United States Patent and Trademark Office as a designated Office. Should the applicant wish to indicate an inventor as applicant for the designation of the United States of America, a request under Rule 92*bis* should be filed with the International Bureau or the receiving Office.
